Dear Mr. Silva,

I am interested in two apartments that I saw listed on Portland's apartment rentals Web site. One is a 58-square-meter one-bedroom apartment on the first floor and the other is an 84-square-meter two-bedroom apartment on the fourth floor.

I am relocating from New York City to Portland in January to take a job at Casa Merey. Would it be possible to send a friend of mine, Mario Smith, to tour the apartments on my behalf? I am also curious to know about parking availability at The Washington.

Sincerely,

Giovanna Messina

Dear Ms. Messina,

I would be happy to give your friend a tour. The fourth-floor apartment has already been rented, but the apartment on the first floor is still available, In addition to being accessible via the building lobby, it has a private street entrance. While The Washington has an underground garage, residents are welcome to park directly in front of the building on Sherman Avenue.

Please let me know Mr. Smith's availability to tour the apartment.

Best regards,

Richard Silva

Hi everyone,

I've attached the minutes from Monday's monthly meeting. Please let me know by tomorrow if I need to make any revisions, I'll post the corrected minutes on the Web site on Friday.

Since we ran out of time before we could talk about the new government regulations, I'll put that topic at the top of the list for our September meeting. The new rules go into effect on October 1, so we have time to prepare. Also, we'll need to go with our second choice for the date of our end-of-year staff party, since the first date suggested by Mr. Durand conflicts with the first day of the National Accounting Association's annual conference. This is a late-breaking event for us; the association just learned that their long-time venue will be unavailable because of renovations. Most of our rooms will likely be booked, and our staff will be very busy. Luckily, it is only a two-day event.

1. Call to order and introductory remarks by Ms. Cho.

2. Mr. Halpern reported a drop in occupancy rates in July, mostly because of the opening of the Teakwood Inn nearby. He suggested more advertising on travel Web sites to boost the number of reservations.

3. Ms. Cho announced that Kayla Chen at the Elmwood Times wants to write a piece on the Longmuir Inn for their November 5 issue. Ms. Bloch volunteered to act as spokesperson, since she knows the inn's history:

4. Mr. Durand will begin planning the end-of-year staff party soon. He proposed December 15 for the event, with December 8 as an alternate. The attendees voted 5-to-1 in favor of these dates.

Dear Ms. Cho,

Thank you for circulating the draft of the minutes. I need to clarify that at the meeting I suggested Mr. Iselin meet with Kayla Chen. He said that he would be happy to do it, since he knows much more about the history of the Longmuir Inn than I do. I believe the rest of the minutes are accurate.

Thanks!

Gina Bloch
