Questions 169-171 refer to the following letter.

Taylorsville Gazette

To the Editor:

For nearly twenty years, the Taylorsville 5K Fun Run was a summer tradition-an opportunity to participate in a friendly event that always brought the community together. — [1] —. Everyone in town got involved in the festivities in one way or another. Our high school students often helped staff the refreshment tables set up near the finish line. — [2] —.

This year a decision was made to discontinue the Fun Run. Instead, the newly organized Lakeside Race, an event for competitive runners, was held. I enjoyed watching it. — [3] —. However, this event was no replacement for the Fun Run. The Fun Run encouraged participation by all Taylorsville residents, not just trained athletes. — [4] —. Let's bring back the Fun Run!

Questions 172-175 refer to the following online chat discussion.

Kimla Jazani [11:13 A.M.] Hi, all. Did you hear that our motivational speaker has canceled?

Josh Maxwell [11:18 A.M.] Oh no! And the regional conference is only a week from today. Can we get a replacement speaker?

Phoebe Kanellis [11:24 A.M.] We could try a speaker agency. At my last job, I always hired speakers through an agency for our national sales meetings.

Josh Maxwell [11:25 A.M.] We could also think about asking our CEO Alfred Walsh to speak, He's only been here for a couple of weeks, but he may want to share some thoughts about changing corporate culture as a strategy for growth.

Kimia Jazani [11:26 A.M.] Thanks, Phoebe. That could work. What is the name of the agency that you used before?

Phoebe Kanellis [11:28 A.M.] Speakerist, Inc.

Kimla Jazani [11:28 A.M.] That's also a great idea, Josh!

Phoebe Kanellis [11:32 A.M.] I like how much information their Web site gives about speakers, including where they're located and their fees. I'm sure we can find the right person for our conference if we start looking now, Kimia Jazani [11:34 A.M.] We have a plan, then. I'll check out the Speakerist, Inc., Web site, and 'll also find out about Mr. Walsh's availability. Thank you both!

172. What is the main topic of the online chat discussion?
(A) Reasons for canceling a meeting
(B) Ideas for alternate plans for a conference
(C) Designs for office improvements
(D) Suggestions for an incentive program for employees

173. What is indicated about Mr. Walsh?
(A) He is new in his position.
(B) He has hired speakers in the past.
(C) He will be out of town during a conference.
(D) He motivates his employees.

174. At 11:26 A.M., what does Ms. Jazani most likely mean when she writes, "That could work"?
(A) She will consider hosting an event without a speaker.
(B) She will ask Mr. Walsh to approve some changes.
(C) She thinks that using an agency might solve a problem.
(D) She believes that they should plan the next sales meeting soon.

175. According to Ms. Kanellis, what information is included on the Speakerist, Inc., Web site?
(A) Speaking tips for presenters
(B) Lists of recommended topics
(C) Speakers geographic locations
(D) Videos of speakers
